

TEDDY BRINGS SLANDER SUIT

ARTICLE, ALLEGING COLONEL INTERFERE IN LANGUAGE AND LIQUOR, IS BASIS.

$10,000 IS ASKED FOR

MICHIGAN EDITOR NAMED AS DEFENDANT IN CASE.

PROGRESSIVES IN STATEMENT

Declare Accusation Is an "Insidious Campaign of Slander"—Also Says Charge Is "Cruel Falsity."

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 25.—Suit for $10,000 for libel was filed today by a Detroit attorney acting for Theodore Roosevelt, against George A. Newett, editor of the Iron Ore at Ishpeming, Mich.

The prope alleged libel in that Newett printed an article in his paper charging that Colonel Roosevelt was interfering in the use of language and liquor.

The statement adds that the action was begun because in the publication in question, "Mr. Newett has furnished the first opportunity that Colonel Roosevelt or his friends" have been able to find for the "prompt and authoritative disproof" of the charges.

Progressives' Statement.
New York, Oct. 25.—That the charges over which the Michigan suit was filed constituted the beginning of an insidious campaign of slander against Colonel Roosevelt is the declaration of the Progressive national committee in a statement today.

"Knowing the cruel falsity of this charge," the statement says, "those who have been interested in circulating it have proceeded under cover and in the dark."

No respectable person of respectability, so far as he is known, Colonel Roosevelt and his friends, has dared to make this charge in an open and responsible way until Mr. New-ett made it in his newspaper.

Colonel Directs Action.
On Monday, October 14, the day he was shot, Colonel Roosevelt was in Chicago preparing to go to Milwaukee when a copy of the paper was put in his hands. Upon reading the article Colonel Roosevelt gave directions to proceed against Mr. Newett at once.

"Colonel Roosevelt, however, in taking this action, is not seeking to recover money damages, and the amount asked in the suit is therefore fixed at a nominal sum."

POSSE AFTER RIOTERS

THIRTY CRETANS OPEN FIRE ON WORKMEN, INJURING FIVE.

Sheriff and Deputies Give Chase But are Unsuccessful—Injured Officer Believed Will Die.

Pinham, Utah, Oct. 25.—Sheriff
Sharp and his posse of 200 deputies returned to Pinham tonight after a fruitless search for the gang of thirty Cretans who fired on a deputy sheriff and a number of workmen yesterday, wounding five men, one probably fatally.

After the Cretans fired 500 shots
they abandoned their position overlooking the mines and fled to the hills. Sheriff Sharp soon started in pursuit, but was unable to find any trace of the fugitives. The hills are covered with a dense growth of brush.
The riot in which the men were injured, occurred when Deputy Sheriff Tidwell was escorting a number of miners to work. Tidwell was shot in the breast and right wrist and seriously injured.

CONFESSED NEGRESS "GUILTY"

Jury Returns Verdict Following Har-rall's Tale of Many Murders—Gets Life Imprisonment.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 25.—Clementine Bernabet, the negro "axe woman" and follower of the Church of Sacrifice, whose murders according to her confession numbered 19, was today found guilty of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment.

The negroes of the community who had feared her both because of the crimes she had committed and for the "evil eye" they believed she possessed, had threatened to form a lynching party should she be acquitted.

All the victims were negroes. A year ago Clementine's father, Raymond Bernabet, and her brother Samuel, were convicted for murdering the "axe woman" later confessed to having committed.

Armed Indians Want Passage.
Juarez, Mex., Oct. 25.—General Aubert, federal commander here, said today that he has asked Mexico City for the transportation of several hundred armed Yaqui Indians from Nogales, Ariz., to El Paso, Texas. Permission to send the Indians through United States territory will be requested of the Washington authorities soon, he said.

IRON NERVE OF BECKER WIND TO AS INFORMER

CONVICTED MURDERER OF ROS-ENTHAL WEAKENS ONLY WHEN SEEING WIFE.

APPEAL HOPES CHEER HIM

Four Gunmen Will Next Be Placed on Trial—"Whitely" Lewis or "Lefty Louie" First.

New York, Oct. 25.—Police Lieutenant Charles Becker spent his hours in the toils today planning his fight to annul the verdict of the jury which convicted him last night of the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal.

Becker has lost none of the iron nerve which bore him through the trial and the ordeal of hearing himself condemned as guilty. If his appearance and every action today went for anything, it is a hope freshed from a sound sleep and after a hearty breakfast summoned his chief attorney, John F. McIntyre.

Confers With Attorney.
The two conferred for more than an hour and later McIntyre announced that immediate notice of appeal from the verdict would be filed.
Without this appeal Becker, who is due to be sentenced next Wednesday, would, if the usual procedure were followed, take his seat in the electric chair the first week in December.

The filing of the notice, however,
will act as a stay and it is not impossible that many months will elapse before the ultimate fate of the convicted police officer is determined. In the recent case two years passed before the appeal for a first degree murder was settled.

Express Belief of Reversal.
"I don't mind saying that we expect a reversal," Becker's attorney announced.

The appeal will be on the grounds that the verdict was against the weight of evidence; that the justice's charges were of a nature to injure the chance of the defendant; upon the justice's failure to rule that Schepps, the four informers, will be murdered and upon the error of the justice in refusing to allow testimony submitted by the defense to go into the record.

Wife Visits Prisoner.
Becker's wife visited him this afternoon and, according to prison attendants, the meeting marked the one moment since the prisoner was indicted when he seemed on the verge of breaking down. When, after an hour's call, Mrs. Becker emerged from the prison gate it could be seen that she had been weeping.

Either "Whitely" Lewis or "Lefty Louie" will be the next of the seven men indicted for the murder to be placed on trial. District Attorney Whitman announced tonight. The date fixed is Nov. 7.

Meanwhile Jack Rose, "Bridge"
Webster, Harry Vailon and Sam Schepps, the four informers, will be kept in the west side prison.

Schepps Seeks Freedom.
Schepps, whose attitude towards his incarceration thus far has been one of complete docility, today protested that he had been in jail "long enough" and his counsel hinted that he would take legal action to obtain his inmate's release.

Schepps, due to be arraigned Monday on the vagrancy charge under which he was confined and it was reported tonight that the district attorney would ask that he be held under $25,000 bail. Rose also is anxious for his release.

"What those informers want now is not bail," said District Attorney Whitman tonight. "but extra room space on their cells so they'll feel safe."

DETECTIVE TELLS OF RIOT

Officer on Stand for Several Hours at Trial of Alleged Grabow Riot Leaders.

Lake Charles, La., Oct. 25.—T. N.
Harrell, a detective, while on the stand this afternoon in the Grabow labor riot case, testified that President A. L. Emerson of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers, one of the nine union men on trial, said when the armed men joined the timber workers on the beach from De-rider to Grabow the day of the battle and refused to give up their guns.

"Well, I've cleared myself, go ahead and shoot—if you want to," Harrell told the jury. Harrell said either Uriah Martin or L. T. Johnson, who were in the union crowd about Emerson, fired the first shot.
Several hours were lost in the session today on account of temporary illness of Juror Duffey Holland. This loss of time precluded the possibility of completing the state's case today.

The prosecution hopes to have its evidence in by tomorrow night.
The state gained a point today through Judge Overton's broadening of his ruling with regard to the admissibility of evidence to show conspiracy and the defense failed on cross-examination to shake the testimony of Mabry, the timber worker who testified yesterday that violence had been advised in the councils of the brotherhood.

Harrell said that he and others on Saturday preceding the Grabow battle went to Grabow and stopped at the home of Ed Ezzell, where they discus-ed the subject of "winning up" the unfinished business at Grabow.

HOCKIN POINTED TO AS INFORMER

GOVERNMENT SEEKS TO SHOW
ON "DYNAMITE CONSPIRACY" DEFENDANT CONFESSED.

WITNESS CLOSELY QUESTIONED

Relates Various Talks With Person
Now Indicted as One of Guilty Parties in "Jobs."

Indianapolis, Oct. 25.—Herbert S.
Hockin, a defendant in the dynamite conspiracy trial who succeeded John J. McNamara, the dynamiter, as secretary of the iron workers' union, was identified by four witnesses today as having given information to the government against his forty-four fellow defendants.

Walter Drew, New York, counsel for the National Erectors' Association, testified that Hockin had said:
"I know they've got me but I don't want to be the only one."

Witness said that during the sessions last winter of the federal grand jury which returned the indictments Hockin offered to give information
but was turned away with the remark: "Go to the district attorney and make a clean breast of it. He is the only person with authority to make promises."

Hockin's Warning Told Of.
"Hockin came to me several times and told me my life was in danger," said Mr. Drew. "He told me fellows from the Pacific coast, including Dist. A.
Treitmo and Ed Knoke, were after me and that I had better look out for a fellow named John Stephens of Chicago. He said he would warn me later when I might expect danger."

Another time he came to my room
at a club and in the presence of R.
F. Foster, a detective, arranged to let me have the key of the iron workers' office so we might put in a telephone device, by which we would be able at all times to record what President Frank M. Ryan and others said about the dynamiting. At first Hockin said he knew the plan was for the train to get mixed up with McNamara,
but when I replied, 'No, you haven't any brains, but only a little cunning and we've got the goods on you,' he went away."

Draw on Stand.
Mr. Drew related that a strike had been declared by the iron workers' union in 1905 and explosions on work from the headquarters at New York began soon after that time.
Senator J. W. Kern for the defense asked: "Isn't one of the members of the directors' association a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation?"

"I believe it is," said Mr. Drew.
Hockin is the man who Orville E.
McManis said put him in the dynam-iting business, and who engaged many of the jobs blown up by Mc-Namara and McManis. He also is accused by the government of having
"double crossed" the union officials.

Thomas F. Markey, a photographer, testified he saw Hockin visit the grand jury room with bundles of papers and later saw him in the iron workers' office when detectives visited it to secure photographs of letters. The witness said Hockin on one occasion had said, "I've got to get away from here before any one sees me."

Charles L. Schmidt, who testified United States marshal, also said Hockin had visited the federal building with papers.
Guy Caldwell, an elevator boy, identified Hockin as having visited Drew's room.

When attorneys objected to a request that Hockin stand up, Judge A.
B. Anderson said:
"Stand up, Hockin. It's absurd to ask a jury to try a case without knowing whether the defendant is present." Hockin then stood up.

G. W. Washburn of Chicago, testified about installing the telephone device in the iron workers' headquarters. He said it was done before dawn last December, himself and the detectives walking through the office building in barefooted shoes. He said the door was unlocked by Detective Foster.

F. DIAZ TO BE SHOT

RUMOR HAS IT GENERAL AND TWO OFFICERS WILL BE EXECUTED.

Extra Editions Chronicling Announcement Stir Vera Cruz—Friends Endeavoring to Secure Delay.

Vera Cruz, Mex., Oct. 25.—The court martial of General Felix Diaz began at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The execution of Senors Lima and Magoni, two of his officers, has been fixed for tomorrow morning. It is probable that General Diaz will be shot at the same time. Two officers were shot last night.

The remaining officers of the Diaz revolt will receive sentences of imprisonment.
Extra editions of the newspapers
late tonight gave the report that Diaz had been sentenced to death by a court martial.

The story was received with doubt by a large part of the public who were reluctant to believe that the commandant of the federal forces at Vera Cruz had ignored the order of the federal judge of the first district court here, removing Diaz from the jurisdiction of the military court.
Nevertheless, the friends of Diaz tonight were untiring in their efforts to secure a suspension of the sentence of death, if it has been imposed.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Contributions to the presidential campaign fund of the democratic party this year totalled $678,364, according to the sworn statement of Treasurer Rolla
C. Wells of St. Louis, filed with the chief clerk of the house of representatives today.

Expenditures aggregated $562,618.21,
including $126,000 sent to Chicago for the campaign headquarters, and there are outstanding obligations of $55,149.

The republican statement of contributions will be filed tomorrow, the last day under the law. The progressive party filed its statement yesterday, showing contributions of $204,- 244, expenditures of $292,341 and outstanding obligations amounting to $41,241.

All told, $5,303 contributions were received by Mr. Wells and this year $2,246 were for amounts of $100 or less. Governor Wilson, the nominee, gave $500.

Charles R. Crane of Chicago, and Jacob H. Schiff of New York, each contributed $10,000 in two payments of $5,000 each. Samuel Untermyer of New York, gave $10,000
as did Frederick C. Penfield of Germantown, Pa., and Henry Goldman and Henry H. Gold of New York.

$5,000 Donors.
Among those who contributed $5,000
were Cleveland H. Dodge of New York, Rolla C. Wells of St. Louis,
J. H. Lockwood of Buffalo, Hugh W.
Lace of Tacoma, Wash., Charles E.
Smith of Menasha, Wis., R. A.
Spreckels of New York, J. C. C. Mayo
of Fairview, N. J., Senator Watson of West Virginia, Roger C. Sullivan of Chicago, Nathan Straus of New York, and former Senator Clark of Montana.

Other contributions were from David M. Hyman of New York $2,500, Mrs. N. McCormick Blaine $1,999,
Senator O'Gorman of New York
$1,196, Wm. Church Osborne of New York $1,000, Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago $200, and D. J. B. Muphy of Chicago, who recently attended Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in that city $100.

The account shows that the chief items of expenditures were for printing, postage, newspaper advertising, salaries and traveling expenses of speakers and the presidential nominee.

Herman Ridden of New York, as treasurer of the national committee, turned over $28,825 as the surplus of the Baltimore convention. G. W. Gerard of New York was the largest individual contributor with $13,500.

ACTS IN CUBA STIR U. S. ARMY

TION HINTS AT MORE TROUBLE.

NAVY IS TO BE MADE READY

Americans Will Be Sent to Quiet Disturbances if They Become Frequent—Voting Day Friday.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The serious situation in Cuba, as demonstrated by last night's riot in Havana, when a battle between conservatives and liberals took place, during which several hundred shots were fired and a number of people killed or wounded, is exciting the grave solicitude of the United States government. Reports indicate good grounds for the apprehension that the approaching election period in Cuba would be a most critical test of the stability of the island republic.

Between now and next Friday, election day, many political meetings are to be held throughout the island, with every indication that there will be stormy clashes between the two great parties.

Officials fear that the defeated party will not abide by the result, but will break out in open rebellion, even if pre-election order is enforced.

The conservative leaders, it is reported, already have given warning of such an intention, basing their threat upon the allegation that President Gomez has been favoring the Zayasistas or liberal party, of which he is a representative, although Zaya himself professes to distrust President Gomez, with whom he has had a bitter personal quarrel. More or less disorder is likely to occur on election day, affording the chance for a declaration of fraud, and, on the whole, all of the elements seem to be present that are required to start a revolution.

The opinion of Cuban Minister Rivero, there is no foundation for the reports that President Gomez is seeking to resign his office at this critical moment, and he is positive that he will maintain an attitude of strict impartiality. The minister himself has been in conference with the state department officials here in regard to the situation, which he confidently believes is within the control of President Gomez government.

U. S. Ready to Act Quickly.
Meanwhile, though the exigencies of the border patrol in Texas and Arizona, incident to the Mexican rebellion, have materially changed the disposition of the various bodies of troops that made up what is known as the expeditionary force, the general staff of the army has amended its plans from day to day so that it has available a workable project for the dispatch to Cuba of a sufficient force, probably about 15,000, ready to take charge of the island, if conditions should arise corresponding to those prevailing when the Palma administration collapsed, making it necessary for the United States to carry out its treaty obligations.

As the regular army organizations lack the mobility of the marines, it is possible that these sea warriors would be called upon to initiate intervention and hold possession of Havana and perhaps one or two other of the larger ports until the regular army contingent could be landed on the island. It happens that the situation in Nicaragua has quieted down so that it is now possible to withdraw most of the large force of marines and blue jackets under Rear Admiral Schenck and this force probably would be relied upon for Cuban service in an emergency, being only about three days distant from the island.

The Cuban situation probably will have the immediate attention of President Taft when he returns to Washington tomorrow several days in advance of the original day set for his return.

BANDITS STOP TRAIN

After Approaching With Rifles
Would Be Robbers Become Frightened and Make Getaway.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 25.—Armed bandits stounded a Midland Valley passenger train at Stony Bluff, thirty miles from here at 4 o'clock today.
Railroad ties were piled on the track and when the train stopped several men with rifles appeared from behind a clump of trees.
For some reason however, they were frightened away without approaching the train. The passengers were greatly frightened and several women fainted.

Officials of the road are said to have been on the train. After the ties were removed the train proceeded at Huskell a posse formed and the chase of bandits started.

Man Killed at Houston.
Houston, Oct. 25.—Police officers say this morning that they are still without a clue to the identity of the automobile that ran down and killed Tim O'Flanagan in the business section of the city last night. Several automobiles were in the vicinity and in the confusion it seems that the number was not secured.

Student Dismissed.
Washington, Oct. 25.—Walter J.

dent at the naval academy at Annapolis,
who was court-martialed for having hired a student, was dismissed from the academy today by Secretary Meyer.

POLICEMEN TELL STORY OF MURDER

CARUSO IDENTIFIED AS BEING PRESENT WHEN WOMAN WAS KILLED.

DETAILS OF RIOTS RELATED

Wounded Officer Describes Scene at Time He Was Stabbed—Shots Were Rapid, Claims.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 25.—Joseph Caruso, defendant with Joseph J. Etor and Arturo Giovannitti, on trial for the murder of Anna Lopiz, victim of the Lawrence textile strike riots, was declared by witnesses today to have been present when Policeman Oscar Benoit was stabbed and the Lopiz girl shot, on the evening of January 23, last.

Edward Marshall, a policeman who was with Benoit on that night, testified that Caruso, accompanied by Salvatore Scuito, now a fugitive, stood directly behind Benoit immediately before the shooting and stabbing. Benoit himself testified that a few minutes before he received the fatal wound he had seen Caruso armed with a club.

Marshall, under cross examination,
said he took hold of his fellow officer's arm and said:
"Get out of here, Oscar; look out for yourself."

One of the strikers had called Benoit a vile name, Marshall said, and it looked like trouble as the two had been cut off from their fellow officers by the mob.

"There were two men behind Benoit and two in front of him, one of whom had sworn at him," said Marshall. "Just then I heard shots and I took hold of Benoit and turned him around. At that moment that he was stabbed."

The witness described the two men who had been standing behind Benoit and said one man was Scuito and the other in his opinion was Caruso.
Officer Benoit, which cross examined, said he and Marshall, who had
streets, were endangered.

"What was there to be afraid of?"
asked Caruso's attorney.
"The mob was all around us," said Officer Benoit. "Marshall had just told me to look out and had turned me around when I felt a blow in the neck. Then I saw a flash and seemed to feel heat. I heard the report of a revolver also and just at that moment I saw a woman on the opposite side of the street fall."

Other shots were fired in rapid succession, Benoit said, but he could not ascertain that the shot he felt whizz
by him was the shot that killed Anna Lopiz.

Asked about his recognition of Caruso among the strikers, Benoit said:
"Caruso was one of the men at the head of the crowd which rushed upon us. He was one of the men who approached me just before I was stabbed and before the shooting."

Several militia and police officers were examined during the day and closely questioned by both prosecution and defense as to whether any shots were fired by patrolmen or soldiers. All denied that any order to shoot had been given, or that any shots were fired by men under their command.

Police Sergeant Walter Spranger
admitted that at one time he had ordered his men to get their guns ready
but said they did not fire.

Just before the shooting, Eugene Bencardo, a brother of Detective Charles Bencardo, corroborated the latter's testimony relating to the speech made to strikers by Giovannitti, advising them to "provoke like wild animals at night for the blood of the scabs."

Police Sergeant Walter Spranger
admitted that at one time he had ordered his men to get their guns ready
but said they did not fire.

Chase Rats; Catch Alligator.
New Orleans, Oct. 25.—The rat chase, begun months ago when the bubonic plague broke out in Havana, to rid the river front of rats, made an unexpected catch yesterday. In one of the spring traps they found a four-foot alligator. It is supposed to have come from the shallow water under the wharves.

TO CONFER ABOUT THE PARK.

Commission and Cameron Board to Discuss the Need of More Money.
There is to be a meeting within the next week or ten days between the members of the city commission and the members of the park board looking to a better allowance for the park this year than is provided by the budget.

W. C. Lawson, chairman of the commission, and Ben Gray, Kendall, composing the park board, appeared before the commission yesterday to discuss the matter, but time was limited and it was not taken up. Mr. Neale stated to the commissioners that the members of the park board are disappointed that the city did not provide but $7,500 for the park when the budget was made up. "We realize the demands upon you," said Mr. Neale, "and are satisfied that you have been as liberal as you think you can be. We have our plans made for the future of the park that mean much in the way of making it more beautiful and more attractive to the people, and we would dislike very much to curtail the improvements in any way."

It was suggested that a future time be fixed for a meeting between the commission and the park board. Mr. Neale answered that the meeting was not urgent. "We have a little money to carry a few days," making the remark in a jocular manner, and it was finally agreed that a time be fixed for some evening when it could be talked over.

The commissioners are disposed to give the park more than $7,500 if they can find a way to do so. They will at least take care of an overdraft amounting to about $1250 that is against the park board now, and they are anxious to give what is necessary, all expressing a desire to do so.

Charters Granted.

Austin, Oct. 25.—Chartered today: Southwestern Bohemian Presbytery, of Rosenberg, Fort Bend county; no capital stock. Incorporators—Joseph Mikovsky, of Rosenberg; J. W. Doblas, of Houston Heights; John Schiller, of Sealey; F. W. Begola, of Feneclene.

The Dow Coal Company, of Houston, files an amendment increasing the capital stock from $150,000 to $200,000.

HE WAS VERY CARELESS.

Never brushed his coat. Carried around a great lot of dandruff with him. One day a friend told him of Hall's Hair Remover. He talked with his doctor about it. Then used it. Now his scalp is clean and healthy. No dandruff. No falling hair. No danger of staining the hair, either.

DETECTIVES TO GUARD TEDDY

THREATENING LETTERS BEING RECEIVED AT OYSTER BAY FROM "CHANKS."

ONE VISITOR IS SUSPICIONED

Man Ejected From House After He Lingered to See Ex-President. Roosevelt to Speak Soon.

Oyster Bay, Oct. 25.—On account of a number of threatening letters received by Colonel Roosevelt and the presence in Oyster Bay of a stranger who today attempted to make his way into the colonel's house, steps were taken tonight to guard the life of the ex-president.

A tentative decision was reached to engage one or two men to protect Colonel Roosevelt during the remainder of the campaign and for a time thereafter if the colonel has not recovered sufficiently by election day to be able to defend himself.

Colonel Roosevelt continued to improve today and his physicians said he would be able to speak at Madison Square Garden on Wednesday night if no unforeseen complications arise. But they said he would be unable to do any further campaigning.

The man who attempted to see Colonel Roosevelt arrived in Oyster Bay this afternoon and set out on foot for Sagamore Hill. He was met at the door by the colonel's secretary and insisted that he must see the ex-president, although told that no visitors were being received.

The stranger, after being cut off sharply, returned to Oyster Bay and wrote a rambling letter to Colonel Roosevelt. Then he disappeared. No trace of him could be found in the village tonight, and it was not known whether he had left.

The attempt on Colonel Roosevelt's life in Milwaukee was said by Dr. George W. Fuller of Oyster Bay, one of the colonel's physicians, to have stirred up "cranks" and to be responsible for the letters which Colonel Roosevelt has received since his return to Oyster Bay. In some of them threats have been made against the colonel and it was decided that the danger of another attempt to assassinate him was sufficient to make it necessary to guard him.

Frank Tyree, United States marshal at West Virginia, is the man to whom the guarding of Colonel Roosevelt would be entrusted if his services are available, but there was some doubt whether he would be able to come to Oyster Bay. Mr. Tyree is an old Secret Service man, who was a member of President Roosevelt's personal guard. During the republican convention last June he was constantly with Colonel Roosevelt at the head of a strong-arm squad of half a dozen men.

Dr. Fuller received a letter of warning today from John A. Waldron, appointment clerk in the office of Governor Dix at Albany. He wrote that a man who had attempted to force his way into the hospital at Chicago while Colonel Roosevelt was there had been a prisoner in Clinton prison during the Roosevelt administration and at that time had written a letter in which he had threatened to assassinate President Roosevelt.

It was this man who had announced his intention when he was denied admission to the hospital to follow the colonel to his home.

CAN COMMAND WITNESSES.

Attorney General Holds Persons Can Be Summoned Outside County.
Austin, Oct. 25.—In an opinion to County Attorney J. A. Holmes of Miami, Assistant Attorney General O. C. Funderburg holds that the county court or justice court has the authority to enforce the attendance of witnesses living in other counties to testify in misdemeanor cases.

"If a subpoena is issued out of the county court in a misdemeanor case and such witness disobeys the subpoena, the county court cannot have the witness attached and brought in to testify as can the district court (this is assuming that the codification does not enlarge the provisions of the act of 1887), but the court in such a case would have the power to fine the witness for disobedience of the subpoena and enforce the collection of the fine," he writes.

CITIES TO GET LOWER FIRE RATES.

Low Loss Records Responsible for Insurance Board's Act.

Austin, Oct. 25.—Bastrop, Floresville, Elgin, Kerrville and Wharton, all south Texas points will get a maximum allowance of fifteen percent reduction in their final fire insurance rates on account of low fire loss records. Announcement to this effect was made today by the state insurance board.

Records asking lower rates also have come from a number of other towns in Texas, but they are not yet in shape for the state insurance board to act on them. Until the records are placed in satisfactory condition, the names of the towns involved will not be made public.

Not a single north Texas town has secured the reduction by some allowance may be made later for them.

PRIEST ASKS FOR BOY'S PARDON.

Board of Pardons to Be Acquainted With Facts.

Austin, Oct. 25.—Father Long of Houston, one of the chaplains of the penitentiary system, who conducts services at the several camps and prisons, was here today in conference with the board of pardon advisers.

He thinks that a boy in the penitentiary system, who is subject to epileptic fits and was given two years for passing a forged instrument, should be pardoned, as he cannot get the proper treatment there. In a confession to the father, the boy asked if his soul would be absolved if he should take his own life. The father thinks that the boy's condition is such that he might go insane unless he is released.

Farmers' Institutes Billed.

Austin, Oct. 25.—The department of Agriculture today announced the following farmers' institute itineraries:

E. H. (Bob) Taylor: Pendleton, November 7; Moody, November 8; McGregor, November 9.

William Connally: Lockhart, November 7; Harwood, November 8; Luling, November 9.

STUDENTS CROWD FAIR GROUNDS

FOOTBALL GAMES ADD TO THE OTHER ATTRACTIONS OF TEXAS EXHIBIT.

SATURDAY TO BE THE BIG DAY

Texans Will Battle With Arkansas Eleven for High Honors—End of Event Draws Near.

Dallas, Oct. 25.—Under cloudless skies and beneath a beneficent sun that wouldn't go behind the clouds for a minute for fear of missing one of the thousands of things to be seen at the state fair, people poured into the grounds Friday morning. Conspicuous among the throngs were students from Southwestern and Trinity Universities, whose day at the exposition of the grounds known by collocation was. They made their presence on the grounds known by refreshing and innocent gaiety. Both universities are co-educational, so the present did not belong to the rosy-cheeked masculine sex. Bright-eyed higher education, were very evident among the two student groups. Trinity University appeared early in the morning, bringing along the university band. Students and alumni were met at convention tent No. 2 by Rev. Glenn L. Sneed of Dallas, president of the Alumni association, and by others.

Students Register at Tent.
At the tent students and alumni registered and then scattered over the grounds to see the sights until the game called them to the steel grandstand. Probably 250 students were here, as well as several hundred alumni and well-wishers of the university.

Big Football Game Saturday.
Saturday marks the climax of the excellent three days' football program at the fair grounds being carried out under the supervision of Hal Mosley, manager of the State Fair athletics. Agricultural and mechanical college of this state against the Razorbacks on the north. Both teams are reported in the pink of condition and prepared to put up a great game. The contest is particularly important, for on its result depends whether or not a Texas team can lay claim to the championship of the southwest. If A. & M. is defeated the chances of a Texas team being champion are blasted.

1000 Students Expected.
Over 1000 students are expected from A. & M. They will come clad in uniform and will parade the streets of Dallas before going to the fair. There will be a grand parade inside the grounds before the game, which is slated to begin at 3:30 o'clock. Special arrangements for handling the overflow crowd from the grand stand have been made and Mr. Mosley declares that every spectator who purchases a ticket will be able to see the big clash from start to finish.

Last Days Draw Near.
Saturday and Sunday are the two last days at the State Fair and large crowds are expected to be present. The perfect weather which has prevailed with the exception of Dallas day and the Wednesday preceding has brought thousands upon thousands from every nook and corner of Texas, as well as from other states. Saturday the big football game will be the great drawing card, while Sunday's program will have many things worth while.

BOY'S MOTHER COMPLAINS.
Parent Appeals to Humane Society Because Lad Was Spanked.
Dallas, Oct. 25.—Andrew Jones, 12 years old, in company with his mother, Mrs. Jacob Jones, called at the office of Miss Elizabeth Baker of the Humane Society Friday morning and made complaint against a teacher at the San Jacinto school.

The boy exhibited a scratch on his arm which he said resulted from a beating administered to him by a teacher at the institution. He said that he had been whipped severely. Miss Baker called up the principal of the institution and was told that the lad had been spanked because he threw candy about the room during school hours.

Oklahoma Bank Closes.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The First National Bank of Wilburton, Ok., closed today. National Bank Examiner Wilcox, in charge of the bank, telegraphed the comptroller of the currency that the institution was insolvent as the result of a shortage.

Democrats Select Assistant Secretary.

Austin, Oct. 25.—Notice has been received here that Lloyd P. Lechridge has been appointed assistant secretary of the state democratic executive committee by State Chairman Walter Collins of Hillsboro. Mr. Lechridge will accept the appointment.

INFORMATION AS TO COTTON PALACE TICKETS

Special attention is hereby called to three things in connection with the coming Cotton Palace, and they should be carefully noted by every one. In the first place, there are a few boxes for sale for the season, and if you want one you will be compelled to apply at once. Secondly, there will be reserved groups of chairs near the boxes, this year, and while a few of these groups remain, they will not last long.

Merchants' tickets are now on sale same as in the past. Different merchants will have one-day tickets on hand. The names of the merchants giving out these tickets will be on the back of same and will entitle the holders to entrance at the main gate.

Albert Clifton has in charge the selling of the boxes and chairs; also the placing of the merchants' tickets. The many who are interested in these three essentials should get in touch with him at once.

$283,805,760 COST OF POSTOFFICES

Postmaster General Prepares Estimates for Coming Year.
Washington, Oct. 25.—For the support of their postal service, the people of the United States next year will pay $283,805,760, far more than for any other branch of the government service.

Estimates forwarded today to the treasury department by Postmaster General Hitchcock of appropriations necessary to the operation of the postoffice department during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1913, propose an increase of $12,688,199 over the appropriations of the current year.

Mr. Hitchcock is the first cabinet officer to complete his estimates, which aggregate $281,791,508 for the postal service at large, exclusive of $2,014,260 for the department of Washington. Nearly $1,000,000 of the increase will be required to put into effect the postal examination legislation enacted this year. It is estimated that $734,000 will be required for the parcels post system; $1,350,000 to meet the conditions required under the new eight-hour law; $750,000 to provide for the reclassification of railway mail clerks, and $150,000 to establish the new village free delivery service.

Colquitt to Attend Governor's Conference.
Austin, Oct. 25.—Governor Colquitt plans to attend the annual conference of governors to be held at Richmond, Va., Dec. 3. He is at present making plans in this direction. Texas has never been represented at one of these conferences of chief executives and the governor hopes to be able to get away for this one.

There also will be at Richmond about the same time a conference of the adjutant generals of the several states. Adjutant General Hutchings will attend that, and accompany the governor.

WANT TO LEASE IRON FURNACES

Dallas, Oct. 25.—Gov. O. B. Colquitt this morning was in private session at the Oriental hotel with a party of capitalists from the state of Pennsylvania who wish to lease the state iron furnaces smelter, and pipe factory at Rusk.

Governor Colquitt after the conference stated that nothing had been settled, and that there was nothing to make public regarding the meeting.

The Pennsylvania business men who are interested have purchased a large section of iron ore lands in Cass county. They believe that iron ore can be profitably smelted in this state and they wish to lease or purchase the Rusk furnaces for the purpose of making sure their contentions regarding the matter.

MOTHER IN CELL WITH GIRL

Parent Becomes Prisoner to Gain Daughter's Love From Jack Johnson—Hearing Resumes Monday.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Three deputy United States marshals today served many new subpoenas on persons who are to appear before the federal grand jury investigating the Jack Johnson and Lucille Cameron case, when it resumes sessions on Monday morning.

Federal officials said that more than 100 witnesses will be heard.

It developed that Mrs. Cameron-Falconet, mother of Lucille Cameron, occupies the cell with her daughter at Rockford, Ill., in order to keep the girl under her influence. The girl is under $25,000 bond.

A subpoena has been issued for a west side manufacturer, who is said by the federal officials to have introduced the Cameron girl to the negro champion in the latter's cafe in West Thirty-first street.

A subpoena also has been issued for Big Hart, a widely known sportsman. Government authorities say there will be subpoenas issued for many other persons believed to have knowledge of conditions in the negro champion's cafe.

DEFENDANTS SEEK BAIL.

Trials of Those Accused for Sheriff's Murder Will Start Soon.

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 25.—The prosecution rested its case today in the motion for bail of the fifteen defendants charged with the murder of Sheriff Ed Callahan of Breathitt county, in the circuit court here and the defense immediately took up the presentation.

Almost every one of the accused men were placed on the stand and in each case the knowledge of a conspiracy to murder Callahan, or of any fund to pay his assassin, was denied.

The testimony for the defense will be continued when court convenes again tomorrow, after which the jury for the trial of the defendants will be empaneled.

GAMES FOR THIRTEEN CLUB:

TWO FOR THIS WEEK

The Thirteen club has enjoyed two of its pleasant card sessions within the present week. The first on Monday found Mrs. Earle Massey hostess on North Eighth, and the second Mrs. Pitt, who was hostess on Friday.

COLONIAL BRIDGE CLUB

PLAYS WITH MRS. PECK

It was one of the pleasing incidents in the game of the Colonial Bridge on Thursday that the game was played with one of the new members, Mrs. Fred A. Peck, on North Seventeenth. This was nothing but the usual tilt at bridge, with Mrs. Frank Sims present by special invitation. The prizes were taken by Mrs. B. F. Dancer and Mrs. Ralph Turner. It was voted to have no game during Cotton Palace season. The next hostess was not named.

THE BACHELOR MAIDS

PLAY WITH MISS GLOVER

In entertaining her card club, the popular Bachelor Maids, Miss Mary Glover provided acceptable grizes, had in waiting dainty refreshments and a cordial welcome. The special guests were Miss Nell Blanchard and her guest, Miss Conlies from Mexico City; Miss Clara Wallace, Miss Pauline Foster and Mrs. Harvey McRichey. After the spirited contest at bridge the prize for leading score was handed to Miss Nettie May Wilkes and that for the consolation cut to Miss Lydia Clinton. The club will continue through the Cotton Palace season. The forthcoming hostess is not yet named.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS

COME FROM HOLT MASSEY

During his summer vacation spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Massey, Holt Massey renewed acquaintance and friendship from his school days here. In addition, he was mingled in social life and extended his circle. In leaving to join his Little Boy Blue company in New York city, he was stricken, and he has ever since been quite ill. The last reports, though, are so far assuring as to have him again with the Savage company, but not sufficient strong to join his company. His new position makes him stage manager of "The Million," another of the Savage companies.

MRS. KESLER IS HOSTESS

TO BAYLOR ROUND TABLE

The first regular study session of the Baylor Round Table was held on Thursday. Mrs. J. S. Kesler was hostess. The club is devoting this year to men of the hour in American literature, novel, drama and so on. The assignments for this program were the Misses Buck and Mrs. Claypool. During the winter there will be special afternoons for the discussion of world topics, such as the Montessori and other questions which are current discussions. One of the new measures which the Round Table is furthering is the abolition of certain unclean spots on the South Side.

THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY

WILL EXHIBIT AT PALACE

The Public Library is preparing an exhibit for the Cotton Palace, where everybody will be welcome and where a representative from the library will be present all the time to answer questions relative to the educational work which is being done by the public library for Waco. Nearly 9000 residents of Waco have registered at the library as regular borrowers, and many more have used the reading and reference rooms. The object of the exhibit is to interest those especially who have never taken advantage of its privileges; also, to give information to visitors who are establishing libraries in their home towns.

MAIDS AND MATRONS PLAY

WITH MRS. M. D. BAKER

In receiving her card club, the Maids and Matrons, Mrs. M. D. Baker gave for the first time a special place to her return to reside in Waco. Therefore she took opportunity to extend the number of guests, so as to include those who had given cordial greeting back to her own place in the social circle. This brought a number of new tables. Five hundred was the diversion, and the prizes were taken by Mrs. Charles Parker and Mrs. Bayless Harries. Flowers about the rooms and an accent upon the refreshment feature made this the most significant game for the Maids and Matrons this season. The next game will be played with Miss Queen Barnett on Provident Heights.

COTTON PALACE CULINARY

MAKES ANOTHER AWARD

The committee for the culinary exhibit in the Cotton Palace announces that the canned fruits sent to the exhibition season. This is also required of all other entries in the department, except the cakes and bread. The committee announces that no cans will be opened by the judges unless in case of a tie. In this, the flavor will make the final decision, hence the cans with the tie will be opened. These exhibits for the culinary department must be entered on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday of the coming week; none, except for special bread and cake day, will be received later.

The committee announces an additional award for preserved plums. The first prize is $1.75 and the second a ribbon.

MRS. JAMES A. LORD IS PAID

PARTING COMPLIMENTS

No sooner was it noised that Mrs. James A. Lord is today to leave for a new home than her friends pressed forward to pay some mark of regret that separation was to come. For a number of years Mrs. Lord has resided in that city, and that she made friends the following attests:

On Tuesday the Mesdames C. W. Wilson and Charles E. Gooch, at the Kyle made Mrs. Lord her guest at bridge.

Wednesday the same courtesy was paid by the Mesdames Allan Sanford and Charles Moore.

On Friday the Mesdames George Tod, Ed Laughlin, Bayless Harries and William Carroll were joint hostesses at cards for Mrs. Lord. Those most congenial to Mrs. Lord.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lord met dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. King, Eighteenth and Fort avenue.

THE STORY HOUR PROGRAM

FOR THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following program has been arranged by Miss Leta Pharr for the story hour at the library for the months of November and December. On Thanksgiving day there will be a special Thanksgiving story, illustrated with stereoscopic pictures, so on December 21 for the Christmas story.

On December 14 Miss Nell Whitman, who is always a favorite with the children, will tell the story of the "Greatest Weaver." The other stories will be told by Miss Leta Pharr, who is giving much of her time and talent to the success of the library story hour.

The library contains a large collection of books on Greek tales and most of the juvenile periodicals. The library will delight in listening to their recital again, and those who do not will be led to read them by their presentation at the story hour.

Several story hours are planned in connection with the library exhibit at the Cotton Palace. Misses Pharr and Whitman will tell the stories, and parents and teachers are invited to attend as well as to see that their children are present.

The story has long been recognized as a valuable story hour, and this will be demonstrated at the Cotton Palace by the library. The time and place will be announced later.

Miss Whitman spent the last week in Dallas, holding a story hour each day in connection with the library exhibit at the Dallas fair, and Miss Pharr goes to Fort Worth soon for a similar purpose. Waco is fortunate in having two trained story-tellers, who are in demand, not only in Waco, but in other cities in Texas as well.

Program—Greek stories: Nov. 2—"Pomegranate Seeds." Nov. 9—"Golden Touch." Nov. 16—"Fraudulent Pitcher." Nov. 23—"The Christmas Story." Nov. 30—"Quest of the Hammer." Dec. 7—"How Odin Lost His Eye." Dec. 14—"The Greatest Weaver." Dec. 21—"The Father We Men." Christmas story. Stereoscopic pictures. Dec. 28—New Year story.

Society Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Davis will be at the Kyle permanently.

Mrs. Cofer is with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Wells, for a short while. As soon as Mrs. J. A. Lord is permanently located in Houston, Mrs. Cofer will join her.

It is now expected that Mr. and Mrs. A. Holderman will reach Waco within the coming week. They have had the trip from Ohio to Panama and are returning to their friends here for the winter. They will be at the Kyle.

It is now expected that Mrs. P. R. Pace will be at home from her delightful visit to Tennessee with the ensuing week. She will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Alice Browner of Jefferson, Tenn.

The visit of Mrs. F. C. Olds with her mother, Mrs. Baker, and her sisters, the Mesdames William Neale and W. W. Pryor, is en route from Abilene to New York city. Mr. Olds has preceded, and the future residence will be in New York.

Miss Lil Harrison is entertaining with a Halloween party in Fort Worth. One of her guests will be Miss Nora Gorman, who is attending school in Fort Worth. Since these are both Waco girls, double Waco flavor will be quite strong in this company.

After her extended tour through the Yellowstone and down the Pacific slope with quite a sojourn in California, Miss Fannie Smith is now due at home before the close of another week. She will be in her North Fifth street cottage.

The Mothers' Congress is planning great things for its state meeting in Houston on November 12. Among the distinguished guests will be the national president, Mrs. Frederick Schaff. Waco will be prominent when the discussion of the playground is under way.

Dr. and Mrs. McCutchan have extended their wedding journey as far as Milwaukee and Chicago. They are not only seeing the sights, but are receiving social attention from former friends. They sent cards on Friday to say that they would reach home with the coming week.

The Mesdames Edward Rotun, to respond to the address of welcome, work. Mrs. Bass says: "In my estimate Miss Preston is the finest metal worker in the country." She makes her specialty in flower jewelry, using stone coloring. This exhibit was secured after much persuasion upon the part of Mrs. Bass, who feels that she has something which will delight the women. Mrs. Bass also reports that there will be a fine collection of miniatures at the Palace. Some of this will come from Miss Dunlap, also of Chicago. The women who visit the Palace must give time and close attention to these specialties in the art department.

Mrs. Bass and Mrs. Sanford are today in Dallas, hoping to secure the best pieces now in the Dallas exhibition for Waco.

The story has long been recognized as a valuable story hour, and this will be demonstrated at the Cotton Palace by the library. The time and place will be announced later.

Miss Whitman spent the last week in Dallas, holding a story hour each day in connection with the library exhibit at the Dallas fair, and Miss Pharr goes to Fort Worth soon for a similar purpose. Waco is fortunate in having two trained story-tellers, who are in demand, not only in Waco, but in other cities in Texas as well.

Society Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Davis will be at the Kyle permanently.

Mrs. Cofer is with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Wells, for a short while. As soon as Mrs. J. A. Lord is permanently located in Houston, Mrs. Cofer will join her.

It is now expected that Mr. and Mrs. A. Holderman will reach Waco within the coming week. They have had the trip from Ohio to Panama and are returning to their friends here for the winter. They will be at the Kyle.

It is now expected that Mrs. P. R. Pace will be at home from her delightful visit to Tennessee with the ensuing week. She will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Alice Browner of Jefferson, Tenn.

The visit of Mrs. F. C. Olds with her mother, Mrs. Baker, and her sisters, the Mesdames William Neale and W. W. Pryor, is en route from Abilene to New York city. Mr. Olds has preceded, and the future residence will be in New York.

Miss Lil Harrison is entertaining with a Halloween party in Fort Worth. One of her guests will be Miss Nora Gorman, who is attending school in Fort Worth. Since these are both Waco girls, double Waco flavor will be quite strong in this company.

After her extended tour through the Yellowstone and down the Pacific slope with quite a sojourn in California, Miss Fannie Smith is now due at home before the close of another week. She will be in her North Fifth street cottage.

The Mothers' Congress is planning great things for its state meeting in Houston on November 12. Among the distinguished guests will be the national president, Mrs. Frederick Schaff. Waco will be prominent when the discussion of the playground is under way.

Dr. and Mrs. McCutchan have extended their wedding journey as far as Milwaukee and Chicago. They are not only seeing the sights, but are receiving social attention from former friends. They sent cards on Friday to say that they would reach home with the coming week.

The John Wright residence having been sold, Mr. and Mrs. Wright are preparing to move to the West Side. They will locate temporarily while plans mature for building their new home.

The Mesdames Edward Rotun, to respond to the address of welcome, with Mrs. W. C. Harmon, regent of the chapter, Mrs. John F. Marshall, and perhaps other members, will be the Waco representation at the state convention, daughters of the American Revolution. This meets in Dallas November 6.

The Misses Zola and Bessie Brashar come from St. Louis as the Cotton Palace guests of Miss Myrtle Randle on Sixteenth and West avenue.

Mrs. Richard Jurney sends the pleasing information that the floral catalogue lists the jack bean as the hyacinth bean. This is because of the analogy in the flowering of the bean with the hyacinth. Now, that we have a more euphonious name for the plant, suppose we improve on the catalogue and call it the hyacinth vine. Then we will truly have something acceptable when this graceful floral fancy appears upon society's table.

Mrs. Frank Trau, as president of the Euterpean club, has issued invitations for Wednesday afternoon. This will be a musical matinee in Mrs. Trau's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Prade will hereafter reside in Waco. This is the result of business promotion for Mr. Prade, which returns him from Corsicana. They will be with Mrs. Flanagan on Eighteenth and Fort.

Mrs. Lemuel Preston and baby girl, accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Cartwright, are leaving at an early day. This is the homegoing to Beaumont of Mrs. Preston after a visit of some length with her mother, Mrs. Cartwright.

After detention at the sanitarium, owing to an operation for appendicitis, Mrs. J. P. Massey is returned to her apartments at the Terrace.

The last day of the picture exhibition at the High School saw a perceptible increase of interest. Both students and parents were well represented.

Once more it is requested that those having items for The News do not withhold them until Sunday. Nor is the request heeded that these should be reserved until Sunday when sent earlier in the week. It is the policy of the woman's department to print the news just as soon as it is ready. Therefore it must come the morning following its occurrence.

Society Personals.

Mrs. J. P. Boone of Wichita Falls, the guest of Mrs. Maurice Landman, C. W. Randall on Sixteenth and West avenue.

Miss Nell Jurney is at home from spending a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Steinbeck, in the country.

After prolonged summer absence, Mrs. J. W. Davis is due at home today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lord are leaving for their new home, Houston, today.

Among the late season homecomings is that of Miss Eddie May Riggs from California.

Miss Lucile Herring and her guest, Miss Verne Monday of Loveland, will be down from Dallas today.

Miss Esther Woodward has gone over for the Dallas excitement.

Mrs. Parke of San Marcos, who came for the McCutchan wedding, is again at home.

Mrs. L. P. Peck, who has been the guest of Mrs. Maurice Landman, is returning home to San Antonio on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Mann is due today from Vernon. She visits her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, on North Fifth.

Mrs. J. W. McGuire of Washington street is visiting her former home, Dallas, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Payne and Miss Nina Belle Payne of North Sixteenth are at home from Dallas.

Mrs. Nancy Lacy is at home from Temple.

Mrs. James Riley came up from Temple on Friday.

Mrs. Bettie Robinson and Miss Ruby Reid Robinson came up from Lorena on Friday and a few days with Mrs. Ludwell Williams.

COMING TO THE THEATRE.

"The Rose Maid" Tonight.

A press notice says that of the many splendid features with which Werba & Luescher's delightful new opera, "The Rose Maid," is brimming over, perhaps the most attractive of all is "The Cute Kiddies" number.

In this scene several little tots who look as if they had stepped from the show case of some toy shop with their flaxen hair of spun gold, their laughing blue eyes and their peaches and cream complexions, trundle on the stage toy baby carriages containing an assortment of "kiddie" pets from dollies to Teddy bears. Their entrance is always a signal for a round of applause and they are recalled time and again by an enthusiastic audience. "The Rose Maid" will be the attraction at the Auditorium Theatre this afternoon for a matinee and

"Whatever goes to do when the rent comes 'round'" will cease to be the police siren song on the east side of New York until the effects of this Becker verdict evaporate a bit, and the proprietors are praising the gods of chance.

NEW YORK'S CRIME.

The finding of Charles Becker, a lieutenant on New York's big police force, guilty of first degree murder for instigating the death of Herman Rosenthal, a gambler, is one of the most significant verdicts returned in a criminal court of this nation in many years.

It is not so much that a police official is adjudged to have encompassed the killing of a man of whom he stood in fear and on whom he desired to be revenged, as that the revelations attending the trial of Becker must convey to every thoughtful man a striking picture of crime conditions, not only in New York, but in every American city. Here was a cold-blooded killing, it was charged, to cloak and foster the corrupt conduct of a police officer in his dealings with the gamblers and other law-breakers of his precinct. Out of such dealings, not on the comparatively modest salary of a lieutenant of police—Becker was shown to have grown rich and powerful.

Investigation of conditions in New York's underworld, as regards charges of "police protection" of gambling houses, the white slave traffic, disorderly houses, illicit sale of liquor, even actual burglary, highway robbery and murder, have been periodic and practically resultless for the past twenty years. Few police and their tribute-payers have been put behind the bars as a result of detection and disclosure. This Becker business is the first really serious focusing of the searchlight in some years. Organized murder, gunmen given the freedom of the city, the monthly protection payment, conditions which challenge credulity are shown to obtain still in the submerged life of the great metropolis.

In degree, of course, such conditions obtain in every big city, in not a few small cities, and can only be rooted out, even temporarily, by such a trial as this of Becker. Surely there must have been a powerfully pointed lesson to effect such a verdict. The characters of the disreputable, lawless witnesses who testified against the officer were flayed to ribbons by his able attorneys. Evidence against him came out of the mouths of toughs, men who could not remain in some cities longer than was necessary for an honest police to discover their presence. In spite of all this, in spite of the bitterest feeling imaginable, in spite of the awe with which the huge machine known as the New York police force is regarded, the State proved its case by these sports and toughs and, unless the appellate courts shall decide otherwise, Lieutenant Becker must suffer electrocution for instigating the murder of a gambler.

It is an unusually vicious and fearful picture of American crime and some police methods. We believe we speak advisedly in averring that such a situation would not be possible in any European city. The thugs and assassins of the great underworld of London, Paris and Vienna exist, to be sure; but they are kept within bounds and crime is hunted down relentlessly by the police. When there is a serious outbreak it is instigated by the thugs, not by the "protective" power. The implication of a police official, such as Becker's proven conspiracy, is comparatively unknown abroad.

While there are cities of the enormity and cosmopolitan make-up of New York, in this country, serious crime and much crime will continue. But will any one say that police corruption must continue; that monthly tribute for protection, paid by social outcasts and lawbreakers must continue? Outraged public sentiment in Texas has denounced the periodic exaction of fines from fallen women and gamblers—but what is this situation compared with that New York system of tribute and violence?

It is not unreasonable to believe that, from the Becker verdict, will result a season—no matter how brief—of freedom from such corrupt protection and crime, for New York and for every other big city. The disclosures will continue to come, as long as the crook runs afoul of the vengeance of the police for tribute refused or "protection" violated.

Meanwhile, it behooves the authorities of every city to put an end to the existence, and to the possibility, of such corruption.

BEAUTIFY THE PARK.

Although the city commission fixed $7,500 as the appropriation for the use of the Cameron Park board during the current year, when determining the tax rate, it now finds that sum undoubtedly will be inadequate to effect the improvement of which the park is immediately in need and to which this beautiful gift property is entitled. While it became a question of adjusting appropriations as between such necessities as the fire department, street repair and the like, we suggested that less pressing improvements should be waived for the time being, and the park might properly be considered of less importance than the streets. The commissioners, however, now purpose allowing the park board an increased appropriation for permanent improvements, the nature of which has not yet been definitely announced, and they will meet the park board in conference on the situation.

The board, of course, cannot receive the $15,000 suggested in the budget, or within some thousands of that sum, but the commissioners will endeavor to provide more than $7,500 by transfer from other funds and finances. That will be welcome news to Wacoans, who are, without exception, proud and appreciative of the city's park. None will begrudge the increase in maintenance fund. Roadways and trees are constantly in need of attention, and the opportunities for adding to the natural beauty of this acreage are many. There are frequent suggestions that the property should be better-lighted, the seven lamps now supplied by the light and power company, and the three additional areas contracted for by the city, being considered hardly adequate for the roads and paths. With other improvements and better lighting, the park will in every respect be an ideal place for driving at night, and an attraction of this character is a benefit to every city.

It will be of advantage if the board and the commissioners can agree soon on the needs of Cameron Park, and if there can be a substantial increase in the allotment of city funds for its beautifying.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.

The calendar warns that the great holiday is exactly two months distant. The arrival of much wares and merchandise in the city's stores indicate that the merchants are watching the calendar. The lightness of distinctive gift-buying indicates that the Christmas givers are not.

November 1, year after year, is marked on the editorial calendar as the beginning of the season for the "shop early" preaching. We will anticipate the date by a week and present our initial plea for consideration of the workers in the store and factory, and common-sense for the buyers themselves in making the most of their own interests.

At this time, opportunities for obtaining better goods, more varieties and prompter service are innumerable. The treatment the buyer can obtain now cannot be compared with what he will be obliged, of necessity, to accept when the rush begins. Early buying is not only humane for the employee, it is sensible for the customer, in that it gives the merchant opportunity to become familiar with the popular trend of buying in season to conform his stock with the more marked preferences in any line. All in all, early shopping is a blessing to every man and woman concerned.

A "Christmas Shopping" argument may evoke a smile at this season of warm sunshine and the delay between the overtone and the play may seem overlong. But isn't this ideal weather for shopping? Isn't it mild, leisurely weather, the veriest contrast to the fortnight preceding Christmas?

It is not unfair to the merchants to remind, too, that while prices now are not as low as they will be on December 26, they are a fraction lower than they will be on December 24. All of which counts when the "high cost of living" is woven into the average woman's shopping bag.

Organizations inclined to benevolence have long advocated early holiday shopping in justice to the overworked employee. But it is a long stride forward along the way of kindness and common sense when the Kansas City board of public welfare makes early shopping a civic feature and a part of its social service. On this head, the Kansas City Journal has printed a comment that interestingly and helpfully summarizes the benefits of buying in advance of the holiday rush:

Nothing could so well insure the success of the early Christmas shopping movement as the knowledge that the board of public welfare is behind it. Here is a form of "social service" that means something. It is a practical and beneficial work that will bring reward not only to the thousands of employees of the stores and shops of Kansas City, but will prove of substantial benefit to the great public that can and should shop early and at leisure. The work of inducing the public to enter into the real holiday spirit which means consideration for store employees brought gratifying results last year. Efforts should be renewed to make this season of buying even more comfortable and satisfactory for all concerned.

It is planned to ask the big department stores and other retail establishments to display Christmas goods earlier than usual in order that the buying public may have a longer time in which to make selections. This is a good idea, if practicable. There is no real purpose in restricting holiday displays to a week or ten days before Christmas except a mistaken theory that it saves expense. If the stores should display their holiday goods three weeks before Christmas it would mean a more even distribution of shopping demands and lessen the necessity for hiring extra clerks. It would mean that better deliveries could be made and that practically all night work would be eliminated. It would bring shoppers down town on days and their incidental purchases would be larger and it would permit of better care of stocks so as to minimize waste both by neglect and by careless handling from inexperienced and neglectful clerks.

Everyone should co-operate so far as possible in this new spirit of commercial emancipation. While the movement is designed primarily for the benefit of store employees, it must not be forgotten that the public also has an important interest in it. Fresh stocks to choose from and plenty of time for choosing what one wants, with alert and ready clerks to serve will more than compensate for any little annoyance that might result from having to come down town a little earlier. Even this last petty annoyance is not necessary. The careful shopper who prepares his Christmas list ought to be ready to make his purchases fully two weeks ahead of the final rush of the inevitable army of the tardy. The early Christmas shopping spirit grows.

TEXAS TITLES.

Both the genuinely and the allegedly humorous periodicals and newspapers have revived target practice at the promiscuous distribution of titles. Texas has come in for its share of the quips—perhaps more than its share. But there is a measure of truth underlying the humor which would prompt the sensible man to go slowly in using the distinction. In some respects, a title unearned and unjustified from the standpoint of its literal meaning is still harmless and a courtesy when considered from the point of age and service.

But titles are bestowed in this land of ours that are ridiculous, unnecessary and not a courtesy by any stretch of the imagination.

The sportive reader will at once open a conversation on glass houses, for the "colonels" in the newspaper profession outnumber those in the army, several to one. But the distinction, in this case, is of time immemorial usage; it is rarely applied to an editor who has not grown old at his desk, and in this respect, at least, it is a harmless and courteous designation. The title itself, by reason of the small-like pace of army promotion, means exactly that—its bearer has grown old in the service. This is not a usage that necessarily should arouse criticism.

It is doubtful just how general should be the bestowal of "generals, colonels, majors," etc., in the everyday addressing of citizens holding commissions in the States' national guard. Their occupations are those of civil life, their diversions, interests or, in some instances, their sense of duty, prompt them to join the militia. While there is more justification for bestowing military title on the active than on the retired militia officer, some sensible objection has been urged that the title should be employed only during the course of actual service. Unlike the army, the militia is not an occupation except for the departmental officers regularly employed and salaried by the state.

To "captain, colonel" and "major" a veteran of the Civil war, even if he never attained the rank of corporal, implies some sentiment and respect and need not be caviled at.

A man who has served on the bench, from county court upwards, if we think, entitled to retain the title of "Judge" after retiring. It is not only a courtesy, it is an earned title and an undoubted distinction—even in these days of an elective judiciary. But no lawyer, even if his practice lies in the supreme court of the nation, is entitled to be "Judge" if he has never worn the ermine. Certainly not the justice court practitioner. Certainly not the law school lecturer. There are very few states where a lawyer is "Judge" simply by virtue of his profession; only a few states where a trial justice is given the title except during actual sitting in cases. The free distribution of the "Judge" designation is ridiculous.

That pleasant-faced young man with the magnifying nose glasses and the wavy hair, who titillates pills and pours liquids into a graduated glass; who, it is claimed since the days of Joe Miller, draws numbers from a hat to determine the price of a prescription, is not a "doctor," ipso facto or in law. No matter how many framed certificates of registration and graduation in pharmacy may adorn his wall, he is not a doctor. Nor is he a "doctor" who is licensed by the state to practice veterinary surgery, unless he has received a doctor's degree from some educational institution. A chiropodist is not a doctor, nor a "beauty specialist." By common usage, a man is a "doctor" who practices medicine or dentistry under State license, though he may have failed to take his degree or may never have attended college. Many modest men forbear using the title of "doctor" even when they possess this degree in law, science, philosophy and divinity, regarding these degrees merely as incidents, so to speak. The doctor of medicine, dentistry and osteopathy must, of necessity, use the prefix as the distinguishing badge of his vocation.

All of which, concentrated, would advise against the liberality with which titles, not the mark of long and conscientious study, labor and service, are bestowed in this state. It is cheapening to the legitimate owners of such distinctions, unnecessary and frequently absurd. This is especially true as regards the use of the title "professor." A professor is one whom a higher educational institution has appointed to a chair of learning, or to an assistantship in that department above the rank of instructor. The bearer of the title has taught or written long and well to obtain his position. Titles are negligible and artificial quantities, at best. They should not be made more so by misuse.

Texas Viewpoints

Suspicious Suggestion.

The "Viewpoint" of The Waco News claims that he knows all about Waco's girls. Maybe so. But we don't understand how he can make that knowledge worth anything to him in the newspaper business. To know all about chorus girls would be better, and acquiring even that sort of information has been the finish of many an industrious student. — State Press in Dallas News.

We grant S. P.'s contention that this is "unnecessary knowledge," except as our commentary on the anatomic distribution of avoirdupois for the college girls evoked, or provoked S. P. to cumulative brilliancies. It will do us no good in the newspaper business, we admit, in any other regard. And our heart goes out to S. P.'s "oh for one hour of youthful joy, give back my twentieth spring" lament implied in his suggestion that "to know all about chorus girls would be better." With what suspicious alacrity that suggestion came! And does he speak with authority, or merely "as the scribes," in his dogma that "acquiring that sort of information has been the finish of many an industrious student?" All the world's a stage, to be sure, but we confess some surprise at this revelation of State Press' familiarity with the little door over which the tiny jet flickers glowingly in its royal globe and wire shade, and the burly Cerberus accepts two bits for taking in your card to the goddess in spangles.

A Babel Come-Back.

Parham, the prophet of the Apostolic faith, as he calls it, might do Sealy some good; for if he can do all he claims, he could preach to the Sealyites in all their tongues, High Dutch, Low Dutch, German, Bohemian, Polish, Junkie English, Mexican, Bernadino and plain American.—New Uim Enterprise.

We await eagerly Sealy's comeback, and trust it will be a collaboration of the wits whose communications are couched in the several tongues enumerated by The Enterprise. In which case we will do our best with an esperanto vocabulary and a pint of old particular 1892. By "Jungle English" does The Enterprise refer to Thompson-Seton or T. Roosevelt?

One-Sided Benefits.

The women who have a dread of their husbands marrying a second time generally live to a ripe old age.—Cieburne Review.

Yes, the women do. But that particular dread and the daily expression of it makes business good for the black broadcloth box makers and the artist whose specialty is "sacred to the memory of John Smith."

Rank Optimism.

New York has a great opportunity to improve the personnel of its people by ridding the earth of Becker and some dozen others of his ilk. Can it rise to its hour?—Austin Tribune.

The Tribune either doesn't know New York, or is letting its passion for poetic climax gloss the situation. Speaking of improving the personnel of that city, it should ask: "Can it rise to its decade?"

The Witching Hour.

Judge W. M. Tidwell called the legislative banquet in Dallas Friday night, returning on the last Interurban, and reports a very pleasant time. —Waxbach Herald.

We have heard that those who did not return on the last Interurbans reported a very, very pleasant time.

REPORTS ON COTTON GINNING

Statistics Show 819,780 Bales Less Than This Date Last Year—Texas Leads the List.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cotton ginning to October the amount to 6,535,841 bales, or 819,780 bales less than ginned to that date last year, when a record crop was grown, according to the census bureau's report today.

East of the Mississippi, the ginnings fell below last year's, while west of the Mississippi last year's figures were exceeded in every state. Texas ginned to that date a greater quantity by more than 20,000 bales than ever before.

In addition to the ginning figures the census bureau announced statistics estimating the world's production of cotton from the crop of 1911 at 22,287,000 bales of 500 pounds net; the consumption for the year ending Aug. 31, 1912, at 20,277,000 bales, and the number of active consuming cotton spinners at 149,954,000.

The third cotton ginning report of the season, compiled from reports of census bureau correspondents and agents throughout the cotton belt and issued at 10 a. m. today by Director E. Dana Durand, announced that 6,535,841 bales of cotton counting round as half bales, of the growth of 1912 had been ginned prior to October 18. This includes the results of the most active period of the ginning season, September 25 to October 18, during which in recent years more than one-fourth of the entire crop passed through the ginner's hands.

To October 18 last year 6,535,841 bales, or 49.9 per cent of the entire crop, had been ginned; in 1908 to that date 6,295,166 bales, or 48.1 per cent of the crop had been ginned, and in 1906 to that date 4,931,621 bales, or 38.9 per cent of the crop had been ginned.

The number of Sea Island cotton bales included was 15,704, compared with 40,303 bales last year, 36,482 bales in 1908 and 32,013 bales in 1906.

Ginnings prior to October 18, by states, with comparisons for last year and other big crop years and the percentage of the entire crop ginned prior to that date in those years, follow:

Despondent, Kills Self. Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 25.—The dead body of D. T. White of Atlanta, was found in a room in a hotel here this morning, a pistol lying near the body and a bullet in the brain. A note indicated suicide because of dependency on account of his inability to support his wife.

S. S. Convention at Snyder. Snyder, Oct. 25.—Many delegates are arriving here today for the state Sunday school convention.

Midland went to El Paso sharpening their pencils for a few pious reminders to The Courier-Times as to the locus of the Texas hookworm commission's discoveries. These sectional scraps are beautiful things to handle with infant gauntlets.

Jam for Jim.

James Haver Quarles, who used to be on the staff of the Houston Post and later librarian and press agent of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, is now managing editor of The Waco Morning News. This is one of the new publications of the west that is already making quite an editorial reputation.—Arkansas Four States Press.

The Waco Morning News is fast becoming one of the big papers of Texas. Its circulation is said to be growing fast over the black land belt and it is now one of the very best and neatest papers that comes to the Record's exchange table. Hays Quarles is making it a crack-a-jack. He is a good newspaper man and one of the brightest in the state.—Palestine Record.

BUSINESS MORE ACTIVE

BRADSTREET'S AND DUN'S REPORTS OF WEEK MAKE FOR CHEERS.

Jobs of Staple Lines Enjoy Brisk Dealings and Calls for Winter Goods Have Increased.

New York, Oct. 25.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The mercantile interests of the country speaking of them collectively have expressed another week of exceptionally active trade.

Jobs of all staple lines have enjoyed a brisk business and calls for winter goods have come to the front in a noteworthy way. Incidentally, buying for future account for next spring is becoming more conspicuous.

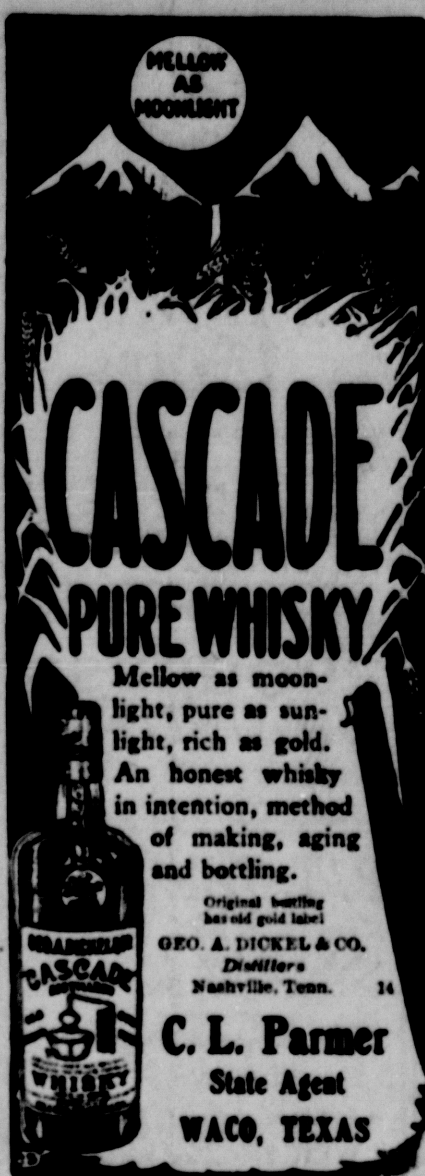

The relatively most active bones are the west and the southwest which sections have been blessed by bounteous crops. Even the south for a long time comparatively backward was showing greater life, thanks to free marketing of cotton, though things remain rather slow in the south Atlantic regions. Shipping rooms, particularly of dry goods houses, are overtaxed in getting out orders, and manufacturers in most industries are working to capacity.

The iron and steel industry continues in an enviable position, further advances in prices are being made and the railways have bought more freely than at any time this year. Pig iron is not active, but the general situation is such to produce further strength in prices. Retail trade tends to improve, especially in the west, south and southwest.

Conditions are improving and while matters in this respect are not yet entirely favorable, the trends indicate that bills are being met more promptly.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending Oct. 24 were 219 against 187 last week; 231 in the like week of 1911; 229 in 1910; 217 in 1909 and 241 in 1908. In Canada, failures number 23 which compares with 36 last week and 31 in the like week of 1911.

TRINITY IS DEFEATED

SOUTHWESTERN U. TAKES GAME AT DALLAS BY SCORE OF 20 TO 12.

Boutwell's Work for Georgetown Boys Features Exhibition Played Before Crowd of 2000 Spectators.

Dallas, Oct. 25.—Southwestern University of Georgetown defeated Trinity Washington here Friday afternoon by the score of 20 to 12.

Southwestern started the scoring in the first quarter after two minutes of play. Southwestern again scored a touchdown in the second quarter and in the last stage of the game crossed the goal line. Two goals were kicked and this ended the scoring for the Methodists. Trinity scored in the second and last quarter, but missed goals.

The feature of the game was two forty-yard runs by Boutwell for Southwestern. McHenry also featured by brilliant end runs. Pierce and Trotter were Trinity's stars and made some beautiful line plunges and end runs.

The game was played before 2,000 spectators and was a hard-fought battle. More than 250 students accompanied the Washington team.

The line-up:

Trinity	Position	Southwestern
Trotter	Left end	Manning
Williams	Left tackle	David
Garrett	Left guard	Harris
Newton	Center	Smith
Albright	Right guard	Henderson-Barcus
Fleming	Right tackle	Boutwell-Thompson
Duncan-Rogers	Right end	Keen
McElree	Quarterback	Graham
Robinson	Left halfback	McHenry
Ferguson	Right halfback	Wilson-Boutwell
Rogel-Pace	Fullback	Robbin
Umpire—Maise, Sewanee; referee—Utay, A. and M. headlineman, Johnson.

MISSOURI DEFEATS OKLAHOMA.

Defeated Eleven Is Badly Crippled By Injured Players.

Norman, Okla., Oct. 25.—The Oklahoma University team which went down to defeat before the Missouri Tigers today by a score of 14 to 0, was not the same team which made a clean sweep of last season's schedule, trouncing Missouri, Kansas and Texas. Courtwright, Oklahoma's main reliance with his arm in a sling, witnessed his team's humiliation.

Reed, Oklahoma's other halfback, was so badly crippled he could not do himself justice. Oklahoma's golden opportunity passed early in the game when Weden, on Missouri's 25-yard line, blocked an attempted drop kick, had a clear field to goal, but was overtaken. Noble carried the ball over for Missouri's first touchdown early in the first half.

The second touchdown was made by Sheppard on a seven-yard plunge over tackle after Capshaw fumbled a punt directly under his own goal.

Football Schedule of Interest.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Six conference football teams will take part in tomorrow's session of the 1912 western championship race, with indications pointing to spirited competition in each contest. The western spot light will be shared by Chicago-Purdue game on Marshall Field and the Minnesota-Iowa game at Minneapolis, while the Indiana-Northwestern contest at Bloomington, Ind., also will come in for considerable interest.

Men Over 60 in Boat Race.

Saratoga, N. Y., Oct. 25.—James A. Teneyck of Syracuse, the veteran rowing coach, defeated James H. Riley of this village, a former professional, over a three-mile course on Lake Connelly today in a match which had been arranged to settle the championship for oarsmen past 60 years of age. Teneyck is 61 and Riley is 65. Both finished in good condition. The time was 21 minutes, 29 seconds. Teneyck has defeated Riley twice before in similar matches.

Baseball Decisions.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The national board of arbitration of the National Baseball leagues handed down their decisions: Claims allowed: George Hargrave against Nashville, player Evans, against Chattanooga, player Schraeder against Morristown, Tennessee. Claims disallowed: Hardy Ware against Chattanooga.

Michigan to Play Syracuse.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Michigan and Syracuse meet here tomorrow in the first international football game of the year, with the westerners 19 to 8 favorites. Both teams are in good condition.

Demand Action of Railroad.

Mexico City, Oct. 25.—In the event the Northern railroad in the state of Chihuahua does not immediately commence rebuilding its line, the federal troops in that vicinity will be removed and will protect the Mexican Central line, according to a report current here.

MISTROT-CALAHAN COMPANY

MATTHEWS IS TO SUCCEED JAMES

FORMER WACOITE IS TO RETURN TO THIS CITY TO MAKE HIS HEADQUARTERS.

HE GETS A NICE PROMOTION

F. S. James Will Go to Long Beach, Cal., and A. A. Matthews Takes the Place Here.

A. A. Matthews, formerly a resident of Waco, when he was chief clerk in the office of W. A. Webb, when the present general manager of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas was located in this city, is to return to Waco as the successor to F. S. James, general superintendent of the Texas Central and division superintendent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas.

Mr. Matthews is well known in Waco. He formed a wide circle of friends while in the city and it will be gratifying to all those who know him to learn that he is to return to this city. He is a man of cordial disposition, of great experience in engineering work and capable in the operating department of a railroad. Since leaving Waco he has been engineer of maintenance and way of the Katy at Denison. He comes back to handle the larger work of the company in this city which is made very important by the construction of the new terminals here, which will result in this point being one of the best developed along the line of the Katy in this state.

The resignation of F. S. James as division superintendent has been forwarded to General Manager W. A. Webb at Dallas. He is retiring from the railroad business to engage in private interests in Long Beach, Cal. The announcement of Mr. James' retirement was made yesterday. He has been occupying the position of superintendent at Waco since June 15 and was promoted from superintendent of the Hillsboro division of the Katy, which extends south to Granger. According to a statement made yesterday, Mr. James has not fully decided whether his retirement from the railroad business will be permanent. He was complimentary to General Manager Webb and characterized him as one of the most able managers he had ever had any connection with. Mr. James has been connected with the Katy a number of years. He is familiar with all of the roads in the state and a very efficient superintendent.

However, his resignation came as no surprise in railroad circles. It has been pretty generally known for the past six weeks that he was seriously considering the step.

COTTON MEN INTERESTED.

Texas City Desires Change in Rates Regarding Shipments.

Austin, Oct. 25.—General Freight Agent Arthur H. Fonda of the Texas City Terminal company has filed the following application with the railroad commission, which interests cotton men:

"In the handling of concentrated cotton at Texas City we find ourselves forced to meet the competition at Galveston because shippers concentrating here are not willing to pay more for switching from place to place in Texas City than they have to pay in Galveston for drayage."

"At the present a good deal of cotton is handled to concentration sheds at Texas City, afterwards loaded up and switched to the compress and there again loaded and switched to the docks. In order that we may equalize our charges with those at Galveston will you please authorize a switching rate of 10 cents a bale on cotton between the docks and warehouse and compress?"

KATY IN COMPLAINT.

Claim Is Made Cars Are Denied Calvin Coal Company.

Austin, Oct. 25.—Railroad Commissioner William D. Williams today heard from W. C. Silliman of San Antonio a complaint against the Katy for alleged failure to furnish cars for shipments of lignite mined at the Calvin mines in Bastrop county; also for failure to move shipments promptly. Assurance was given Mr. Silliman that the commission would take action looking to the movement of the lignite. Commissioner Williams wired the Katy asking for immediate relief.

Toby Boosters Have a Dinner.

Much enthusiasm was expressed at a dinner given the Toby business college building campaign committee, which took place at the State House yesterday. In the few days the committee has had to work, over one-fifth of the amount needed to build a magnificent business college, to cost $50,000 at Fourth and Webster streets has been subscribed.

"Every place we go we are met with courtesy, and we get a boost if not some financial assistance," was a common remark heard during the dinner. Those who were present were Tom Caulfield, leader Friedland, E. F. Drake, C. B. McCollum, Stark West, Henry J. P. Havekost, Oscar Myre, J. D. Willis, Sam Knight, Fred Mailander, W. D. Lacy Jr., and Edward Toby.

Transportation Increase Suspended.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Proposed increases in railroad transportation charges were suspended by the interstate commerce commission as follows:

NO LEGAL CLAIM MADE.

Mr. Rotan Says the Matter Is Up to the Commission.

At the meeting of the city commission yesterday morning, the following letter was read:

Hon. J. H. Mackey, Mayor:
Dear Sir: I am taking the liberty to write you briefly concerning the matter of the cost of reclaiming the old Waco Springs. I am not setting up a legal claim against the city. The original appropriation was made upon an estimate furnished by Mr. McCall, but which was in no sense a contract. Mr. McCall said at the time that obstacles might arise which would increase the cost. I undertook to pay this expense in a patriotic spirit and in deference to the wishes of a number of good women. I am simply passing the matter up to the commission with the request that they consider to just what extent the work has been done for the public good and to improve city property. I would not for a moment have my friends on the board believe that I would ask or accept of them anything which did not appeal to their sense of right and official propriety.

Yours truly, E. ROTAN.

When the letter had been read, Mayor Mackey asked this question: "If when this matter was brought to us, the statement had been made that it would cost more than we finally did appropriate, what would the commission have done with it?"

Commissioner Wright—I would have voted to turn it down.

Commissioner Caulfield—It was first suggested to spend only $200.

Commissioner Gorman—We cannot be in a position of taking up accounts when folks spend money for the city. We spoke of $200 at first and then raised it to $155.

SEES LOCK AND DAM AT LAST

Judge J. N. Lyle Makes His First Visit to the Work.

Judge John N. Lyle of this city yesterday saw the lock and dam on the Brazos just below Waco, for the first time.

No man in Waco has been more enthusiastic for the navigation of the Brazos than Judge Lyle. He began hammering on the proposition years ago, and so persistent was he in his advocacy of the project that in course of time he won the honorary title of "Admiral of the Brazos." During all the years that he has worked, he has watched with impatience and anxiety the efforts that were being made in congress to secure the money necessary for the work, and when the engineers began on the lock and dam seven miles below Waco it gave him pleasure and joy.

It came to the knowledge of W. W. Seley a few days ago that Judge Lyle had not heretofore watched the engineering movements but knew of it only from pictures he had been shown, and he took him in his runabout for a trip. The "Admiral" was delighted with the visit he had; he found much pleasure in his talk with the engineer and he was pleased with the progress that has been made.

Cisco Folks Are Coming.

Cisco, Oct. 25.—Mr. H. T. Lacy, advertiser and booster for the Cotton Palace at Waco is here this morning. He says he is going to be the biggest thing of the kind ever pulled off in the south, and that Waco will show the people that they know how to handle big things as well as other towns of the state. It is expected a big crowd from this place will attend.

TO DISCUSS THE CHARTER.

Citizens Committee Has Been Invited to Meet Thursday Night.

There is to be a discussion of the new city charter at a meeting to be held in the chamber of the city commission next Thursday night.

At the meeting of the commission yesterday City Secretary John C. Davis was instructed to notify the various organizations which are to be represented in the general charter committee, to appear and organize for a discussion of the charter.

The commission declined a deed to a strip of land on North Seventeenth street between Brook and Proctor streets, which was tendered with the stipulation that in accepting it the city would grade and gravel the street.

Sidewalk ordinances were passed for Thirtieth street from Franklin to Clay and on Twelfth street from Austin to Franklin.

A number of routine matters were disposed of.

IMPROVEMENT IN SCHOOLS.

Falls County Superintendent Reports Betterments in Every Way.

Marlin, Oct. 25.—The school superintendent of Falls county reports a vast improvement in the conditions of rural schools. A great many new buildings have been erected and old ones improved since last season. In numerous instances the grounds have been beautified. School pride has received a decided impetus. Where buildings have heretofore been dilapidated and the grounds neglected, the premises are now made attractive.

Modern seats and desks have been installed where schools have been poorly and uncomfortably furnished. Approved and more effective apparatus have been adopted.

The expansion of interest among patrons, the superintendent states, is observable in all sections of the county. In this respect, some rivalry is noticed among certain communities.

It is stated the demand is much greater than heretofore for the more efficient class of teachers; that better salaries are offered and paid than has been done in the past.

The country schools are opening rapidly. A number of them commenced this week, and others will start Monday. At present the attendance is light on account of the children being needed in the cotton fields.

TO COLLECT ON CITY BONDS.

Legal Department Is Instructed to Enforce Judgment on Last One.

The city commission yesterday instructed the legal department of the city to proceed under the law to collect on every bond declared forfeited in the city court.

City Judge Wren was before the commission on the matter, and replied to various questions that were asked him regarding procedure in the city court. It appears that "undesirable citizens" who are arrested from time to time and give bond, are accommodating enough to leave the city before the case is called in the city court. The city gets no revenue from a fine and unless the bond is forfeited and collection is made, there is no profit from the work of the police.

Assistant Attorney Sanders gave it as his opinion that the bonds could be collected and instructions were issued by the commission that there be collection on each bond in the future.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—It was announced tonight that the young Russian crown prince had passed a good day. He slept three hours and his appetite was better than on previous days.

FILIBUSTER SCARE OVER.

Search of Boat Fails to Give Evidence of Such Fact.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 25.—The schooner L. N. Dantzier which slipped out of the harbor this morning has not been under their surveillance for a week according to Captain Stanley Landrey of the United States revenue cutter Winona, who returned to the city this evening.

He stated that the Winona and her crew had been engaged in target practice at Daphne, on the eastern shore of Mobile Bay throughout the day and that he had not pursued the Dantzier.

The Dantzier was searched here a week ago by United States officers who suspected her as a filibuster but the search ended in nothing, so far as the public knows. The schooner holds a cruising license and may enter or sail as she pleases. She is said to have gone to New Orleans.

Invalid Men and Women

I will give you FREE a sample of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets that have brought health and happiness to thousands—also a book on any chronic disease requested.

During many years of practice I have used numerous combinations of curative medicines for liver ills. I have kept a record of the result in case after case, so that my staff of physicians and surgeons, at the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., are able to diagnose and treat cases at a distance with uniform good results.

But for the permanent relief of blood disorders and impurities, I can recommend my "Golden Medical Discovery" a blood medicine without alcohol or other injurious ingredients.

R. V. PIERCE, M.D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Nature's Way Is The Best
Buried deep in our American forest we find bloodroot, queen's root, mandarin and stone root, golden seal, Oregon grape root and cherrybark. Of these Dr. R. V. Pierce made a pure glyceric extract which has been favorably known for over forty years. He called it "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and the entire system in Nature's own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

has the endorsement of many thousands that it has cured them of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heartburn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

"In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption, the 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The 'Discovery' is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken."

Sold in tablet or liquid form by all principal dealers in medicines, or send fifty one-cent stamps for trial package of tablets.

To find out more about the above mentioned diseases and all about the body in health and disease, get the Common Sense Medical Adviser—the People's Schoolmaster in Medicine—revised and up-to-date book of 1,008 pages. Cloth-bound, sent postpaid on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay cost of wrapping and mailing only. Address: Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

URGES RESERVE ARMY.

Major Wood Declares U. S. Must Guard Hawaii.

Los Angeles, Oct. 25.—Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States army, speaking today at a luncheon in his honor, said it was his idea to have an "army in reserve," numbering about 600,000 men. To do this he said he preferred a short term of enlistment for regulars, then retirement on small pay as reserves.

"In Hawaii we should always keep about 150,000 men," he said. "We must hold Hawaii. Its strategic position gives absolute control of our western coast and we must never allow a foreign power to get possession of it."

MRS. WIER STILL HELD.

Woman Will Not Leave Houston Unless Court So Rules.

Houston, Oct. 25.—All hope of reaching an amicable adjustment of differences in the case of Mrs. Joseph L. Wier, held here on a charge of theft of dresses from the wife of Captain Cecil of Fort McKensie, appears to have been abandoned and the matter it is said, will now be fought out in the courts.

District Attorney and Special Deputy Sheriff McNally, here from Sheridan, Wyo., says he is advised that a requisition is en route from the governor of Wyoming on the governor of Texas for her, and that as soon as it arrives he will present it.

Attorneys of Mrs. Wier have again renewed their efforts to secure a hearing before the courts. Some members of the Masonic fraternity, to which Mrs. Wier's husband belongs, it is said, are interested in her behalf with a view of seeing that no injustice is done her. Indications are it will be some time next week before the matter reaches the executive office at Austin.

"TAG DAY" HAS DANGERS.

Polish National Alliance Abandons Plan To Raise Funds.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Members of the Polish National Alliance, who had planned to hold a "tag day" on October 29 for the purpose of raising funds for a college, last night abandoned the plan because of the danger to which young women and girls are exposed in such an undertaking. Women who were to take charge of the affair said that reports had reached them to the effect that numerous insults and slights had been experienced by women workers who are collecting funds for children's charitable institution on a recent "tag day."

Resolutions were passed by the Polish society deprecating the necessity for having to give up the plan for such a reason and thanking the mayor for having granted them permission to collect money in this way. They decided they would decide on another method of aiding their cause.

No Trouble in Indiana Over Ruling of Governor.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Racing is practically at an end at the Mineral Springs track, Porter, Indiana, the owners having today sent word to the office of Governor Marshall that there will be no horses left in the stable by Sunday unless an injunction is granted in the meantime.

The state troops in charge of the course expect to leave by Sunday. Judge Futhill at Michigan City, before whom an application for an injunction to prevent the state from interfering with the racing, has given no indication when his decision on the application will be given.

PASSION PLAY IS SUBJECT OF TALK

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH HAS LARGE AUDIENCE TO HEAR ARCH-DEACON WEBBER.

EACH SCENE IS A LESSON

Will Close Mission With Union Meeting Sunday Night—To Talk to Laboring People Saturday.

For an hour and a half Archdeacon Webber, C. W. Webb, of Boston, stood before an audience at the St. Paul's church last night and gave the most dramatic and complete description of the Passion Play ever heard in Waco. His sermon, a description of each of the twelve scenes, which so clearly illustrated the life of Jesus Christ and His crucifixion, was received by the largest audience ever congregated in the St. Paul's church. Every seat was occupied, chairs were in the aisles and the standing room was all taken.

Giving an entirely different version—one indelibly impressed upon him by witnessing the presentation of the play—Archdeacon Webber held the attention of everyone within sound of his voice.

Following each one of the twelve scenes, or tableaux, of the play, and pointing a description of each with the most eloquent language at his command, besides bringing out many new points that were gained by his own observation, Archdeacon Webber spoke to an audience composed of almost every church denomination in Waco. There were people there representing all walks of life, and they all were interested and listened attentively to the remarkable story of the cross.

Draws Lesson From Each Scene.

And to get away from giving a pure lecture on the great play, Archdeacon Webber likened every scene in his sermon to a lesson with an object lesson in life. He scorned the business man, politician and others who like the dove seller in the play, are willing to betray friends and loved ones in a greedy effort to reap ill-gotten wealth.

There were a remarkably large number in the audience who had witnessed the Passion Play, and they all agreed that Archdeacon Webber's story of the play surpassed all others. However, he did not liken the play to a dramatic production, but declared that the Christian people who produce the play every ten years do so in all earnestness and holiness.

The noon lectures at the Crystal Theater discontinued Friday. Holy Communion will be celebrated at the church this morning, preaching in the afternoon and at night Sunday. A united meeting will be held at the Auditorium, taken part in by all church denominations. This meeting will be at 8 o'clock. He will preach a sermon at the church at 4 o'clock Sunday will mark the close of Archdeacon Webber's sermons in Waco.

To the Man Who Tolls.

Archdeacon Webber, who is conducting a series of mission sermons at the St. Paul's church, will deliver a special sermon to the laboring class of Waco Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A meeting held at the labor temple Wednesday night, the invitation extended to all organized labor in Waco to hear Archdeacon Webber was accepted.

However, the union labor organizations and unorganized labor are both included in the invitation. Archdeacon Webber will not talk on labor issues that are stirring the world today, but he will talk to the laborer and tell them of a higher and better way to live.

It is urged that all of the labor organizations in the city will be well represented at the meeting.

TRAVELING MEN'S DAY.

All traveling men are requested to meet at the Metropole hotel Sunday morning, Oct. 27, at 10 o'clock, in the interest of traveling men's day at the Cotton Palace. A large attendance is urged, as the matter of importance are to be considered.

GEORGE W. TOD, Chairman.

WANTS DOG SHOW IN WACO.

Vice President of Kennel Club Hopes to Fix Date Here.

Waco may have a dog show. In the event it is held here the date will be in March.

In an effort to organize a circuit of kennel shows throughout Texas and the Southwest for the Dog Breeder's Association, C. M. Nevitt, of Dallas, desired to interest local dog fanciers who are interested in kennels with a view of organizing a local kennel club.

During the National Feeders and Breeders show at Fort Worth in March there will be a kennel show, and the following week a show will be held in Dallas. Desiring to hold a third show Nevitt wants to interest Waco citizens into forming a club and assisting in holding a third show in Waco following the Dallas show.

John F. Wright, president of the Young Men's Business League, has agreed to take the matter under advisement with the executive committee, and if the organization can be of any assistance to local dog fanciers and to Nevitt in organizing a club it will do so.

Nevitt is vice president of the Texas State Kennel Club, and can be found at 2714 Noble avenue, Dallas.

CAR TURNS TURTLE TO BE LIGHTS

METHOD PAZDRA AND RAY SCHULOCK ARE CAUGHT BENEATH BIG MACHINE.

Head of Traction and Power Companies Makes Good a Promise to the City.

At a speed of fifteen miles an hour on a straight road, the touring car of Method Pazdra, city attorney of West, skidded and turned turtle at a point three miles from Waco yesterday morning, pinning Pazdra and Ray Schulock beneath and painfully injuring them. Rudolph Schulock and Abe Russell, the latter a constable, crawled from beneath the machine unhurt.

Men passing the scene in a buggy at the time stopped and assisted the two injured men to release the two who had been caught by the overturned car, and in righting the automobile. At the time it was not thought that any of the hurts were serious and the party re-entered their car and came to Waco where they were treated by Dr. W. G. Elliott at the offices of the latter on Austin avenue.

Pazdra had to be carried to the depot after the injuries to his right leg had been treated. Ray Schulock, aside from minor bruises, sustained hurts in his right arm. Dr. Elliott does not think the injuries either will prove serious.

Not a member of the party yesterday could explain how the accident occurred, but all believed their escape to have been narrow. In view of the fact that the upsetting of the machine spilled gasoline over the car and it is almost a miracle that the car did not catch fire. Had this been the case it is doubtful whether either of the injured men could have been rescued.

There were no obstructions in the road at this point, according to the members of the party, and it was straight, while at the same time the car was not being operated at a high rate of speed. The accident occurred in a twinkling of an eye after the passengers felt the automobile skid.

INSPECTOR IS HEARD FROM

North Fifth Street Citizen Had Call from Man Who Looked the House Over.

More evidence of a supposed inspector who gained admission to several private residences on North Fifth street under the disguise of an inspector has been disclosed.

Through the Morning News the police warned residents against allowing this man entrance into their homes unless he produced the proper credentials, and incidentally the police would like to pass on the credentials.

Reading of the adventure of the inspector has convinced Sam Suravitz that the same man gained entrance into his residence at 1912 North Fifth street the early part of the week. According to Mr. Suravitz the man came to his house one morning and represented himself to be an inspector of lights. He visited every room in the house and made examinations and took notes.

This is the same procedure he went through at every other house he visited, and he did not make any inspections save in the homes of the police, to increase the suspicion that the man was a fraud so far as the inspection was concerned.

"I cannot help but believe that there was some other motive which prompted the man to gain entrance into my house," said Mr. Suravitz in discussing the visit the proposed inspector paid at his house.

Local News Notes

John McGlasson has returned from Plainview, Texas, where he was called on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. G. W. McGlasson. Mrs. McGlasson was stricken with apoplexy, some days ago, and a message hastened her son to her bedside. The sufferer is considerably improved and physicians say will recover.

Charged with swindling in the town of Conroe, Texas, H. O. Haskell, a telegraph operator, was placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff A. L. Hatch yesterday afternoon and lodged in the city jail. He denied to the deputy, sworn down in the matter. The warrant, sworn out before Justice of the Peace E. Darby, was placed in Deputy Sheriff Hatch's hands yesterday with the statement that the man wanted would probably be found employed by one of the railroad companies. He began a search which carried him to a number of the telegraph offices and finally at the Mackey he found Haskell.

A glen club will be organized at the Y. M. C. A. at a meeting to be held Saturday night at 7:30. It is stated that there is considerable talent among the membership of the association and it is believed that both in vocal and instrumental music the club will be a good one. Considerable interest is being shown in the matter and all musical members of the association are asked to be present at the meeting. The winter's work at the association is now in full swing. Secretary Hankins and his assistants are busy from early morning until late at night.

Commissioner Wright and Commissioner Gorman suggested that ten lights would be their idea.

Commissioner Wright—I don't want you to draw the 500 line on us. I think there ought to be the equivalent of ten cars in the park and if you will furnish seven, I will agree to furnish three out of the city's contract. The playground should have lights.

Then it was that the "horse trade" commenced, and there were propositions back and forth, the result finally being five to be furnished by the power company, two by the traction company and three by the city.

The matter is to be drawn up in definite form and signed by both parties to the agreement.

The matter of locations will probably be left to the park board.

Mr. Strickland said: "We feel an interest in Waco and want to do our part by you."

The commission passed a vote of thanks to him.

TO BE LIGHTS IN CAMERON PARK

PRESIDENT STRICKLAND WILL FURNISH SEVEN AND THE CITY THREE.

Head of Traction and Power Companies Makes Good a Promise to the City.

There are to be lights in Cameron Park, the amount to be the equivalent of the watt capacity of ten cars.

Five of these lights are to be installed by the Texas Power and Light Company.

Two of these lights are to be installed by the Southern Traction Company.

Three of these lights are to be installed by the city of Waco.

This is the agreement which was reached by the city commission and President J. F. Strickland yesterday morning, after about an hour devoted to what both sides called a "horse trade."

The controversy regarding the light was not without its humorous features, and the "horse trade" expression developed when Mr. Strickland pleaded with Commissioner Gorman to let up on him, because of his driving too close a trade with me.

It happened that W. C. Lawson, chairman of the park board, and Ben G. Kendall and W. J. Neale of the park board, were in the chamber at the time Mr. Strickland took the matter up with the commission. When Mr. Strickland asked how many lights the city wanted him to give to Cameron Park, Commissioner Wright suggested that the park board be asked to take other matters of the commission suggested that the commission did not want to dictate to the park board as to the number of lights or as to the locations.

Dealing With Commission Only.

Mr. Strickland said: "I have never, that he preferred to deal with the city commission in the matter. He said: 'It seems like somebody at some time talked to you gentlemen officially about lights in Cameron Park. In my organization, I have never been able to locate the man who will say he did, but if he did there was never any statement of any number of lights that I believe that some one of the Texas Power and Light Company advised with the commission as to the advisability of the Texas Power and Light Company offering to light Cameron Park, but I do not understand that they committed themselves. It was at the time when the light contract was being figured at a higher price than we finally agreed on.'

"I have been out looking at the park this morning. It is a beautiful place. Nature has done a great deal for Waco and you have cause to be proud. I went out hoping to be able to offer to light the park, but since I have looked at it I am convinced that it would require all the energy of which the plant here is capable to produce lights enough for all the park. What I ask you now is, what amount of light do you think the Texas Power and Light Company ought to furnish?"

Commissioner Wright—I am willing to leave it to the park board.

Mayor Mackey—We have never undertaken to say how much where the lights were to be located.

Commissioner Caulfield—We are willing to leave it to the park board, and let you and the park board agree on it.

Mr. Strickland—Gentlemen, don't send me away with an indefinite answer. It seems we should agree on something definite.

Commissioner Wright—What kind of lights do you propose?

Mr. Strickland—I am at your service, incandescent or arcs. My suggestion is that the lights continue as long as the present light contract continues.

Commissioner Wright—This is not a consideration of the light contract.

Mr. Strickland—I don't want to talk to you about lighting the park but about furnishing you some lights. You should know that we do what we agree to do.

Mayor Emphasizes Point.

Mayor Mackey—I want to settle this point. We do not propose to state what shall be done at Cameron Park or where the lights shall be located. We have only contended for what we thought was a commitment. Whatever you want to do, you agree to do with the park board.

Commissioner Caulfield—That will suit me.

Mr. Strickland—My judgment is, that my agreement should be with the city commission. We are doing business with you, and whatever agreement we have will be reached between us. You can then turn the agreement over to the park board as so much property you are transferring to them. I want to get it done. We will be willing to operate for you to the energy of four arc lights. This can be divided into twenty-one 60 watt arcs. We will ask that you do not ask us to locate them further than five hundred feet from the entrance as material will cost us something. I mean from the driveway where you turn in to the stand. We will furnish the fixtures and maintain the lights.

Commissioner Wright and Commissioner Gorman suggested that ten lights would be their idea.

IN THE LOCAL COURTS

LUKE MOORE GETS A JUDGMENT AGAINST THE CITY FOR $221.10.

Suit in Which There Was Much Interest Finally Results According to Morning News Summing Up.

"We, the jury, find for the defendant Luke Moore, for the sum of $221.10, and we also find for the defendant surety company against the plaintiff."

"R. B. Thomas, foreman."

After being out about twenty-four hours, the jury in the case of the city of Waco against Luke Moore returned the above verdict yesterday in the Nineteenth district court.

This is the case which has been discussed at length in the Morning News for the past two issues. When the case had been argued The Morning News summed up the testimony in the case and the claims that were left after elimination of many by rollings of the court, and stated that the probable result would be a verdict for Mr. Moore. The verdict of the jury bears out the statement of fact heretofore made in The Morning News.

When the case was first filed there was a controversy between Mr. Moore and the city as to the exact amount due the city. Mr. Moore was ready to pay whatever was due, but together they were unable to reach an agreement. The city claimed the amount of $10,000, and the city paid him a claim of $6,000 in commissions. The city claimed the amount of $8,000 when the case went to trial. As the case proceeded there was proof of some amounts and rulings by the court of other amounts, that reduced the claim of the city and resulted in a verdict for Mr. Moore as stated.

Mr. Moore was represented by Scott & Ross and Allan D. Sanford and the city by O. L. Strabbing and City Attorney Lud T. Williams.

Cotton Palace Directors Will Let Traction Company Pass Between Units of the Parade.

The directors of the Texas Cotton Palace have provided that there will be no delay in the transportation facilities to the grounds on the opening night because of the parade, and they are to have the co-operation of Superintendent H. B. Ross of the Southern Traction company.

Heretofore in Waco and in other cities in the state for that matter all street cars are stopped while a parade is in progress. The Cotton Palace directors have decided that they will not object to the regular schedule of the street cars, and Superintendent Ross has agreed that he will maintain all cars on regular schedules on that night. The result will be that as soon as the parade has passed a given point that the people who have seen the parade will be able to catch the next car going to the Cotton Palace and will be delivered there without delay. The parade will be conducted so that at each street intersection cars will be allowed to pass between the units of the parade. This will prevent cars being held at any one stated point until the parade is over, resulting in a crush that will tax the facilities of the traction company so that all cannot be accommodated.

Another feature is that the people will not have to remain on the streets to see the parade. It has been arranged that the judges of the parade will have their reviewing stand at the Cotton Palace grounds, and the parade complete in every detail as it passes through the streets of the city will pass through the Cotton Palace grounds, and there will be a fine opportunity to view it at that time. This will enable ladies and children to hurry out to the grounds in the early evening, before the rush, and get positions of vantage from which they can view the pageant.

T. P. Duncan and C. H. Cox, representing the Cotton Palace directors, called on the city commission yesterday morning and explained to the city officials that it was desired that the traffic ordinance be enforced on the night of the parade, to the extent that vehicles should be required to line up one deep, and only one deep, at the curb, so as to give the full width of the street as near as possible to the parade and the street cars. Mayor Mackey and the commissioners agreed to co-operate in the way possible with the palace directors.

Building Permits.

Building permits were issued by the city secretary yesterday to S. F. Adcock and brother to erect a small building 8x8 on Franklin street between Fifth and Sixth streets at an estimated cost of $25.

A permit was also issued to M. M. Woodward, 1901 Franklin street to build a one-room addition to his house, estimated cost of $220.

A Breath of "London Strand" in the New Clothes Styles for Fall and Winter

English influence—the real English influence—is caught and made fast by the tailors who created the styles we show this season. It is not the ridiculous exaggerated "Blawasted Britisher" type, but the flavor of high-grade, dearly purchased individual style that Stein-Bloch, Kirschbaum Bros. & Co. and the other makers of Sanger Clothes have styled for you.

Try on our "Park" model, or the "English Sack" model, or the "Standard," or, in fact, any one of the many distinctive and exclusive models that we show. You'll appreciate the cleverness and exceptional ability of the tailors who built them, as you see these Suits and Overcoats and note their fitting qualities. After you've selected the model that pleases you, you may choose the pattern. A complete showing of all the new Autumn shades in all models. That's the advantage of having the greater Sanger assortments to choose from.

WORK ON PROVIDENT SEWER.

Mayor and Commissioners Visit the Place and Inspect It.

Mayor Mackey and City Commissioners Gorman, Wright and Caulfield accompanied by City Engineer George Bryant, yesterday made a trip to Provident Heights to inspect the work on the sewer which was laid by Contractor H. C. Davis.

The sewer is being uncovered and reconstructed in those places where it is found to be defective. The engineering department will not relay all the sewer and straighten it, although it is out of line in some places, but there will be necessity for new pipe to be put in at places and more cement will have to be used. There was one point where thirteen joints of
